FIFTEEN CENTS

State $$$ For Creek Accepted

By BETSY ROSSEN

The village of Antioch and the state of Illinois have reached an agreement concerning the Sequoit Creek enclosure project. At Monday's village board meeting the vote was 4-0 (two absent) to accept the state's offer of $20,911 to pay for the area within the state right-of-way.

Recent interpretation by village attorney Andrew Lynch and engineer Frank Angelotti of the 1974 Water and Sewer Connection ordinance calls for an additional charge for water improvement and sewer maintenance to new residents. The board accepted, 4-0, the recommendation which results in a charge to cover the expansion of the water facilities - "buying into" the new construction.

This would be assessed according to a population

Pres Reckers (left) helped Dr. Kopriva perform the impressive project. They posed with their masterpiece shortly before the pool was filled with water for last Sunday's opening day.

ACHS Plans New Reading Program

Freshmen at Antioch Community High School this fall will find that one of the three R's, reading, will receive special attention. A six-week program of reading and study skills is to be a part of the freshman English curriculum.

Because the demands of reading in high school differ from those in grade school, it has long been the dream of the English department to meet reading needs with a concentrated effort. Older students will be able to benefit from a reading laboratory also.

Among the skills to be covered in the program are memorizing, understanding the author's purpose, and reading with an objective instead of randomly.

ACCORDING to Director of Curriculum and Guidance Ed Kurek, the U.S. Commissioner of Education set as a goal four years ago to "have everyone read by 1980. The problem is that people have such varying ideas of what constitutes reading.

"People have different needs at different levels," he says. "And when they perceive their

Lyons-Ryan Personnel Win

John Uedell, general manager, and Pat Ryan, sales manager of Lyons-Ryan Ford Inc., Antioch, have won membership in Ford Division's Marketing Executives' Guild for sales management performance in 1974.

Membership is limited to the 250 top-ranked Ford dealership managers in the nation.

Ray Anderson of Lyons-Ryan, has won the used car manager award. He was one of only 10 managers in the Chicago district to receive the recognition.

Richard Klean, office manager, again received an award for accounting excellence.

Receiving recognition of outstanding sales accomplishment during 1974 were Don Carden, Mike Creaney, Marge Gaa and Joe Hellstern, who qualified for membership in the Ford "500 Club."

STEPHEN SHEEDLO, a 5th grader at Emmons School, has received the AWANA "Timothy Trophy." To receive the award a youth must earn 124 points by completing ranks, sword drills, attending club and Sunday school, and showing good sportsmanship over a three year period. It is the highest award an AWANA clubber can earn for three years of work. Steve is a member of the Fox Lake Baptist AWANA club.

4-H Club Hears About Finland

A foreign exchange student from Finland was the guest speaker at the Millburn Hornets 4-H club meeting.

Marja Vauhkonen showed slides of her native land and exhibited clothes styles. She has been attending Grayslake High School for the last year.

Elizabeth Mayer, Jenny Mayer and Lisa Faber talked on ceramics and tapestry. Keith Faber spoke about different kinds of rabbits.

The next meeting of the club will be a farm meeting on Monday, June 9, at Picket Fence Farm.

needs, they want to learn to read. The program is designed to help students perceive their needs, and then improve."

In January the state announced that money would be available for reading programs. The school sent what Kurek terms a "justification package" and was given the state's okay in April. Antioch is one of 22 schools, only two of which are secondary, to receive such a grant. The funds are for planning, not implementation.

MEMBERS OF a committee involved in the planning are Kurek, Bernard Fosmark, head of the English department; Ann Kakacek and Sue Gerasch, English teachers; Betty Meyer, ACHS school board member; and Sophie Thain, Carol Otis and Jane Willems, members of the community.

The department will use as a model the Urbana Program, an individualized approach, with some adaptation to study skills. Utilizing diagnostic testing, the program is designed to "take them where they are and try to move them ahead," according to Mrs. Kakacek.

"None of us involved in the program think that a reading lab is the only answer," she continues. "This has to be a total school effort, a total focus on building skills in specific content areas." Therefore, personnel from outside the English department will aid in the program's instruction.

Cotillion Raises Funds

The Antioch Mental Health Association sponsored their 10th Annual Cotillion last month, with 290 people attending. Held at the Abbey in Lake Geneva, art work was displayed from Grove School for the severely handicapped, in Lake Forest. Also displayed was a sample of crafts from the Lambs Farm.

The cotillion raised $2,769 to help retarded children reach

Remember back when people used a car only on Sundays and holidays?

If gasoline really does go up to 70 cents a gallon, we'll be back to those "good old days."

We hear that some people are hoarding silver dollars ... possibly for eventual use in parking meters.

SEVEN MIDSHIPMEN have been dismissed from Annapolis for cheating, which, while it may end their opportunities for careers in the Navy, opens up new possibilities in politics.

ARE YOU READY for this week's frightener?

Don't let your youngsters ride on escalators in tennis shoes.

We were talking to a woman who works for an elevator and escalator company and she tells us that hundreds of young boys have had their toes cut off.

When the escalator reaches the top of the "stairs," it seems that the rubber tennis shoes get caught in a small opening.

Sorry to spoil your day, but we thought the message was worth passing along.

The most frequent elevator accident, the lady informs us, is the result of drunken janitors who open the door and step out before their "lift" has reached the floor they think they're on. (For all the inside stories, keep reading the Town Crier.)

THE FIREMEN'S convention ran into a problem here Saturday during the five-man hookup competition.

The Lake County gathering had never encountered this situation before but the Deerfield department showed up with a woman on its team.

Ray Gallaher, an Antioch fire-fighter, said:

"We decided we had to call it the five-person hookup."

AN ITALIAN friend of ours says he has an old World War II Italian army rifle for sale.

"Never used, only dropped once," he says.

ADDING TO the nation's unemployment problem are all the people who used to make costumes for movies.

There should be a requirement that a cocktail hour be completed during the same calendar day.

Hear ye!

We know she's not old enough to remember first hand, but Mrs. Judy Zuhlke of Minneapolis informs us that a cookbook dating back to the turn of the century detailed preparation of "Potted Birds"—½ dozen birds or pigeons—for dinner. (We can't help wondering if this wasn't just another "fly-by-night" dish???)

When We Go to War We Should Try to Win

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

BARRY GOLDWATER

Every time I see a newsman these days, he wants to know what I think were the lessons of Vietnam.

The media seem bewildered by this, which I think is the simplest question in Washington.

The lesson - and the only lesson to be learned from this frightful mess - is that the United States should never again go to war if it doesn't propose to win.

FOR SOME reason, many newsmen and government officials seem to think there is another, less final way. They believe we got away with such a course in Korea - but did we?

Even though the war in Korea has been over for 20 years, the United States still finds it necessary to keep troops there. What's more, the Communists still retain a large piece of the country.

The whole idea of "limited war" - a phrase I have always regarded a contradiction in terms - began when Washington civilians refused permission for Gen. Douglas MacArthur to pursue the Korean enemy beyond the Yalu River.

The Reds made prompt use of this sanctuary by basing most of their planes in that area.

THUS, ORDERS from Washington, not Peking or Moscow, forced our American troops to fight a war with one arm strapped down. I doubt if a similar situation ever existed in the history of the world. The concept of "limited war" was absolutely unique.

In Vietnam, our troops were apparently supplied with books of rules and regulations from Washington telling them what they could and could not do in the combat areas of Indochina.

I CONTENT that the American people have a right to know how the war in Vietnam was fought under the directions of President John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

After all, it is the people's country. I believe their opinion on the subject of "limited war" is important and necessary.

Rudeness isn't an answer

Dear Pat and Marilyn:

I have six children. They range in age from 4 to 15. When people find out that I have six children, you would think I had committed a crime.

When my 5-year-old started school, the kindergarten teacher said, "I assume this is the last." We support our family and do not intend to have any more, but why can't people mind their own business?

Mother of Six

Dear Mother:

Many people are sincerely concerned about overpopulation, and this is a very real problem. However, being rude is not the answer.

Dear Pat and Marilyn:

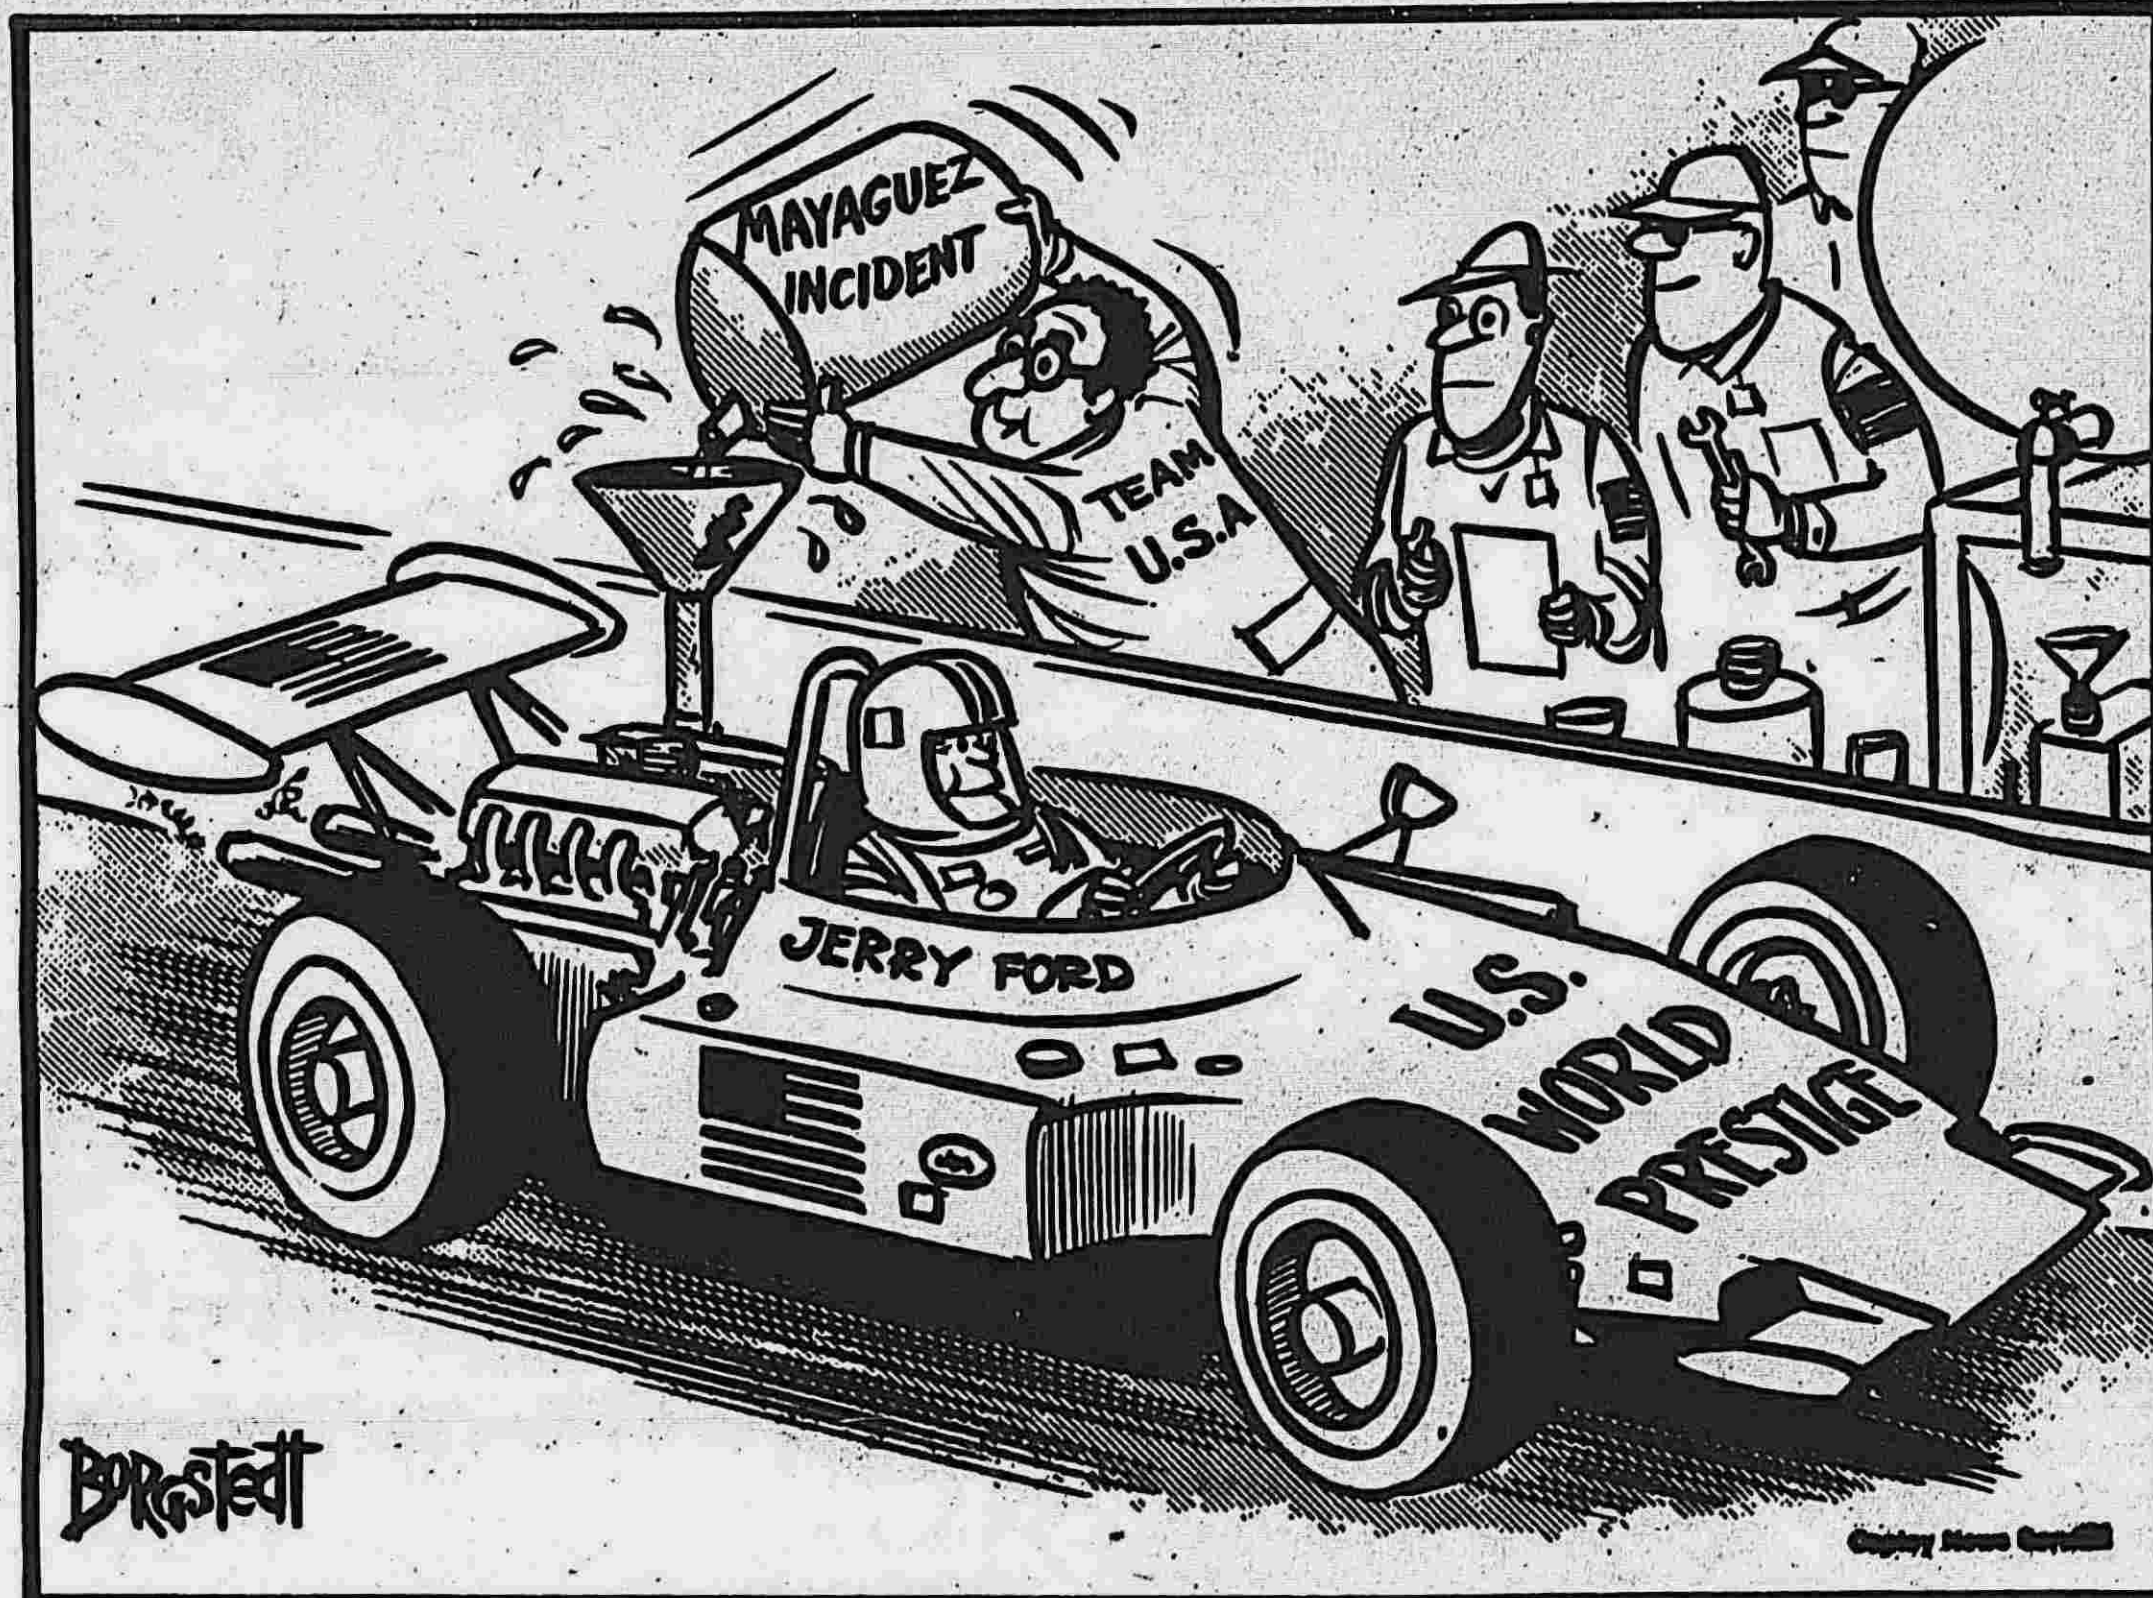

I make a reasonably good living. We can afford to have a nice home, a new car every three or four years, and short vacations. My wife does not see it this way. We happen to be of more modest means than most of the people on our street. My wife wants a shiny new car every year and new furniture to match the neighbor's.

I own an appliance store and there is just so much money that I can earn. The result of this conflict is that my wife pouts and makes me miserable. No amount of talking can convince her that we can't afford everything. How can I slay this green-eyed jealous monster?

No White Knight

Dear White Knight:

Why not suggest to your wife that she do some volunteer work instead of spending so much time concentrating on herself? Such contacts may broaden her narrow view.

THE PATRIOT YEARS Casualties named at Lexington

From the Norwich (Conn.) Packet, Thursday, May 11, 1775, 200 years ago:

WORCESTER — The following is a list of the provincials who were killed and wounded at or near Lexington.

KILLED, Messrs. Robert Munroe, + Jonas Parker, + Samuel Hadley, + Jonathan Harrington, + Caleb Harrington, + Isaac Muzzy, + John Brown, John Raymond, Nathaniel Wyman, and Jedediah Munroe, of Lexington.

Messrs. Jason Russell, Jabez Wyman, and Jason Winship, of Monotony.

Deacon Haines and Mr. — Reed, of Sudbury.

Capt. James Miller, of Concord.

Capt. Jonathan Willson, of Bedford.

Capt. Davis, Mr. — Horner, and Mr. James Howard, of Acton.

Mr. Azael Porter, Mr. Daniel Thomson, of Woburn.

Mr. James Miller, and Capt. William Barber's son, aged 14, of Charlestown.

Isaac Gardner, Esq., of Brookline.

Mr. John Hicks, of Cambridge.

Mr. Henry Pitman, of Medford.

Messrs. Abednego Ramsdell, Daniel Townsend, Wm. Flint, and Thomas Hadley, of Lynn.

Messrs. Henry Jacobs, Samuel Cook, Ebenezer

Goldthwait, George Southwick, Benjamin Doland, jun., Jothan Webb, and Perley Putnam, of Danvers.

Mr. Benjamin Pierce, of Salem.

Those distinguished by this (+) mark were killed by the first fire of the enemy.

WOUNDED, Messrs. John Robbins, John Tidd, Solomon Pierce, Thomas Winship, Nathaniel Farmer, Joseph Comes, Ebenezer Munroe, Francis Brown, and Prime Easterbrooks (a Negro man), of Lexington.

We have seen an account of the loss of the enemy, said to have come from an officer of one of the men of war, by which it appears that 63 of the regulars, and 49 marines were killed, and 103 of both wounded. In all, 215. Lieut. Gould of the 4th Regiment, who is wounded, and Lieut. Porter of the marines and about 30 soldiers are prisoners.

Mr. James Howard and one of the regulars discharged their pieces at the same instant, and each killed the other.

The public most sincerely sympathize with the friends and relations of our deceased brethren, who gloriously sacrificed their lives in fighting for the liberties of their country. By their noble intrepid conduct, in helping to defeat the forces of an ungrateful tyrant, they have endeared their memories to the present generation, who will transmit their names to posterity with the highest honor.

Lindenhurst Checks Bikes

Summer is a time of kids and bikes, and the Lindenhurst Jaycees and police department want to ensure a safe combination of the two.

Last Saturday they conducted a bicycle registration and safety check at the B.J. Hooper School, with more than 100 bicycle owners participating.

The school will be the site for another check this Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Lindenhurst bike owners of all ages are urged to pedal over and do their part against theft and accidents.

HAPPY WORKERS

When the U.S. Department of Labor asked a representative sample of American employees what made them happiest in their jobs, interesting work ranked first, closely followed by good pay, opportunity to get ahead and fringe benefits.

"BENJAMIN FRANKLIN," kite and all, was the star of last Saturday's parade here during the firemen's convention. The Antioch Bicentennial Committee decided on the float when it learned that Ben was the founder of this country's first volunteer fire department. Ben was portrayed by Tim Wells. His companions included (from left) Shirley Gutowski, Marilyn Sterbenz, Diane (Willie) Kasik and (behind them) Tom and Mike Gutowski. Not visible in this photo was another member of the group, Mark Ring.

Convention Successful, Exciting

One of the loudest parades in the history of the world, and one of the best fire conventions in the history of Lake County were held in Antioch last Saturday.

The parade featured fire department equipment from throughout the county, zipping up and down village streets with sirens blaring and horns honking.

Kids lining the curbs were excited - some plugged their ears - and lots of other kids had exciting rides aboard the fire trucks.

As the host crew, Antioch's fire fighters were ineligible to compete - except in the afternoon water fights.

Lake Villa's firemen, who will host this event next May, enjoyed lots of success, setting a county record in the five-man hook-up, placing second in the three-man hydrant hookup, and third in the water fights. Lake Villa also was third in the bucket brigade.

Fox Lake, however, won the Grand Trophy.

Winsor Dalgaard, Lake Villa's assistant chief, called it "one of the best organized conventions we've ever seen. I only hope we can do as well next year in Lake Villa."

equivalent fee schedule determined by the village engineer, and collected upon issuance of a building permit.

Angelotti was also authorized to draw up plans for the Depot St. water main extension to keep the water lines on Depot and Anita streets to Garys Drive and Longview.

IN OTHER action, the board decided on a bill received from the county for tax extension and collection services. Lynch is to send a letter to the county treasurer requesting a cost breakdown, maintaining that the county has the right to charge such a fee, but not on the present percentage basis. The other alternative for the board was to pay under protest.

Antioch is applying to the state for matching funds for warning equipment, in order to purchase another civil defense siren. This comes as a result of a safety committee recommendation and board approval.

GRASS HIGHER than eight inches will be cut by the village, and residents charged a $15 fine for the violation. Clarke Outdoor Spraying Company of LaGrange has begun mosquito abatement services, using such techniques as helicopters to aid in larva-sighting.

The village will begin petitioning procedures to the zoning board to change a fence ordinance from a maximum height of six feet from the present four feet. This comes in response to a Bridgewood resident's request to erect a six-foot fence to the rear of his property to protect both his dogs and neighborhood children. Trustee Mike Haley and others questioned the legality of making exceptions to the present ordinance.

Bids were read on the 1975-76 Sidewalk Projects and were Finance Committee Chairman Irv Walsh made the following recommendations for revenue sharing: office equipment and supplies, $30,000; property and equipment, $10,000; public safety (including sidewalks), $23,000; and civil defense, $2,200. The board accepted, 4-0.

WALSH ALSO reported a judge has ruled Dorothy Stacho, Floria and Gordon Bermingham and Roy Zick must pay $341 to Joseph and Ruth Renfro for property damages. This comes after much dispute over the ownership of a strip of property.

Ken Wierschem was approved, 4-0, as the new chairman of the Plan Commission.

Also given approval was a decision to waive fees for the construction of a pole building for buses by the high school.

FRUSTRATED GARDENER

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — When rabbits invaded Mrs. Carl Kopatz' garden, she followed a friend's advice and successfully discouraged the bunnies' appetites by sprinkling dried bloodmeal on the foliage — the only trouble is her dog loves the bloodmeal and now she has to figure out how to keep Fido out of the garden. — CNS

Bike Hits Car, 2 Boys Hurt

Two boys were injured Sunday afternoon when the bicycle they were riding crashed into a parked car.

Thomas Risch, 9, of 626 Phillips Circle, and Joseph Szuberla, 7, of 640 Phillips Circle, sustained cuts, scrapes and bruises while being chased by two older boys at the park on Hillside Ave., according to a police report.

Officer Richard Good responded to an anonymous caller who reported the accident. The caller said that apparently the boys did not see the parked car and ran into the left rear of the vehicle which was parked on the west shoulder of the street.

Thomas appeared to be hurt, so Good called the Antioch Rescue Squad, which transported him to a Lake Villa physician for treatment. Though squad members feared he had a fractured leg, it was later diagnosed as merely abrasions.

Joseph was treated for lacerations on his hands by the rescue squad.

Both of the boys' fathers were present when the police arrived, but neither witnessed the accident.

League Holds Dinner

La Leche League of Antioch and Lake Villa will host its Annual Potluck Dinner and Alumni Get-Together Wednesday, June 11 at 7:30 p.m., 900 N. Route 59, Lake Villa. Topic for discussion following is "Nutrition and Weaning."

DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL

ABC's of Travel

By BARB CORBIN

Faresapoppin! If you called up several times in the past month and got a different fare each time — it's possible. Nutsy-Boltsy is about all one can say in regards to this business with the number of changes we have had since April 1.

Would you believe, some flights went DOWN. Flights over 780 miles apart are lower and under that distance are somewhat higher.

YOUTH FARES to Europe were approved but those within the United States were rejected along with Senior Citizen fares.

Most airlines have the no-frills fare but only in certain areas and are good only Monday through Thursday, and ticket must be purchased a week in advance but this can save you up to 35 percent.

Recentennial Daylight Savings Fares can save up to 25 percent; Night Coach Fares can save up to 20 percent; Demand Scheduled Fares can save up to 43 percent; Inclusive Tour Fare up to 30 percent savings; and I can go on and on with the various fares.

DON'T FEEL badly if you don't understand all the changes for it is almost impossible for us to tell what the real airfare is from one place to another.

Next time you call for an airfare, please don't think we are getting personal on the types of questions we ask, but that is the only way we can quote you the cheapest airfare possible. How long you will be gone, when do you want to go, will you be staying with family or friends, or do you need a car and hotel, etc. These are some of the questions asked prior to a fare quotation.

Sorry, but if you want the best rate this is what we have to do because every promotional fare has its own rules and regulations.

When in doubt, call your local travel agent.

THE ACTRESSES who helped make the opening night of "Butterflies Are Free" delightful for the PM&L audience were Betty Smouse (left) and Lori Tull.

'Butterflies' Opens Audience's Eyes

By BETSY ROSSEN

I went to opening night of "Butterflies Are Free" expecting a warm, sensitive comic-drama. That's just what I saw. To the local theatre group, especially to director Ken Smouse, I say "thank you" for an enjoyable evening.

The play tells the story of a blind young man, Don Baker, as he starts out on his own in the big city to experience life, love and the confident independence from which his mother has sheltered him. The simplicity of time elapsed (one day) and scene (one apartment) emphasize the relationships and interaction of the four characters.

BOB JUNIUS, as Don, gives a fine performance, delivering both humorous and straight lines with ease and believability.

... (Editor's note: Additional performances of "Butterflies Are Free" will be given on Friday and Saturday nights of this week, and also on Friday and Saturday, June 13 and 14. Reservations can be made by calling 395-3055.)

ity. At times I found myself forgetting he is sighted! He seems to have acquired the attitude of the visually handicapped: desiring sincerity, not pity.

Don lives next-door to lively, fun-filled Jill Tanner, an aspiring young actress who comes into Don's apartment, and thus his life, with a vitality and freshness he finds irresistible. Lori Tull meets the requirements of the role with the same charm that made Goldie Hawn so perfect in the film version a few years ago.

BETTY SMOUSE presents the personality of Florence Tanner with acid wit and bite that are truly remarkable. As a mother who treats her son in his early twenties like "eleven, going on ten," she deals with her son and his new-found friend with a reserved and protective concern. The versatility and poise of Mrs. Smouse's theatrical talents in 14 seasons of PM&L are commendable, and she proved them once again Saturday night.

The fourth character is Ralph Austin, a flashy, very off-Broadway director who has little problem with self-confidence. Cast in this role is Tom Hausman, who illicit just the right amount of disdain from the audience as competition who comes between Don and Jill.

THE PLAY has some of the best one-liners of any presentation around. Discussing her six-day marriage, Jill laments, "It seemed like weeks!" A real show-stopper is Don's Act One comment on reading braille: "Ask me if I've felt any good books lately."

A few weaknesses come to mind. I found Junius' makeup distractingly heavy. Act Two, Scene One had a number of problems with lines, though this improved as the scene went on.

And yes, there is the scantily-clad scene between Don and Jill. I've been asking myself, was it really necessary? It is interesting to consider, however, the sentiments expressed by some during intermission that "it would seem less shocking anywhere but here in Antioch."

It's hard for me to separate my views on the scene I just mentioned from the performance as a whole. I can say with assurance, though, that

PM&L have done a fine job, making me, and I'm sure others, ponder the watchwords of the play, "There are none so blind as those who will not see."

WATER FIGHTS were among the competitions in last Saturday's Lake County Firemen's Convention here. Opposing fire departments battled to spray a barrel across the other's goal line. One of the most spectacular events of fire fighting competition, there will be more water fights in these parts as the summer progresses.

Boat Safety Laws Pending

The Illinois House of Representatives has passed a series of boating safety bills sponsored by Rep. Donald E. Deuster (R. Mundelein) including a new state law that all children age 12 and under must wear a Coast Guard approved life preserver when aboard a watercraft underway on Illinois waters.

In 1974 there were 10 drownings alone in the Chain O'Lakes recreational waterway, and the Coast Guard had to move in due to lax and limited state and local boating law enforcement activities.

Among other safe boating provisions in the Deuster bills are these:

An age limit for motorboat operators identical to the 1974 law. Children under 10 may not operate a motorboat; those 10-12 may if accompanied in the boat by a parent or competent adult; children 12 to 16 may operate a motorboat alone if in possession of a Safe Boating Certificate issued by the Department of Conservation.

Passing or approaching other boats in a manner that creates a "hazardous wake or wash" is prohibited as under Indiana law.

For small lakes 60 acres and less in size a no-wake speed limit is set but local authorities may waive the limit where the public safety is not impaired.

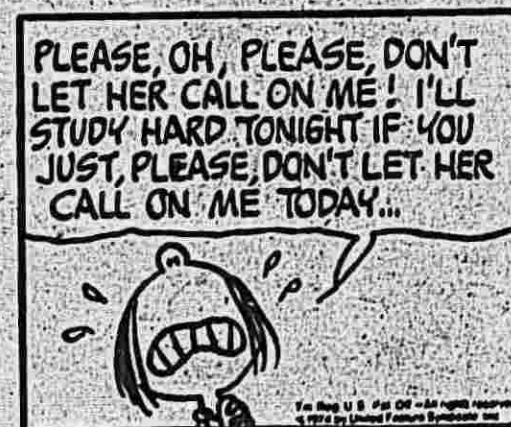

Within 100 feet of any dock, raft, pier, or anchorage area a no-wake speed limit is set except for those towing water skiers.

Motorboat operators are prohibited from harassing other boats, swimmers or skin-divers by repeatedly circling them within 200 feet.

Boat riders are prohibited from riding or sitting on the gunwales, seat tops, sides or decking over the bow of boats underway unless inboard of guards or railings. This is another Wisconsin law designed to avoid persons falling overboard.

The House Bills are now pending in the Illinois Senate.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

The firemen did their usual good job last weekend - a very lively parade highlighted the Lake County Firemen's Convention. Marilyn Sterbenz, Shirley Gutowski and "Willie" Kasik looked lovely in their colonial outfits as they rode by on the Bicentennial float. They were escorted by the young man who portrayed Ben Franklin and his first firemen.

The Fox Lake fire department was awarded the Grand Trophy for having the most points in all the scheduled events as well as the best truck inspection. Lake Villa firemen set a new record for a 5-man hookup with a time of 14.4 seconds. (I realized that was you Maggie after you got halfway down the street.)

Lake Villa also placed third in the waterfights. I don't think there was a dry kid in the town Saturday afternoon. They just had to get right up in front to see everything - or so I'm told.

TOO BAD the weather didn't cooperate a little better Sunday afternoon for the opening of the pool. It didn't seem to stop the kids from our neighborhood, though, they all came home with some change the Lions Club had dropped into the pool for the kids to dive for.

Have you noticed the neat camper the David Nissen family has put together on the back of their pick up? Shake shingle roof and all. Really is cute!

Congrats to Doretta Schiffman who will be installed as the new president of St. Peter's Altar and Rosary Society next Tuesday evening at the group's annual dinner at Osborne's Restaurant.

Hear tell that June 21 is a big day for class reunions - the classes of '48 and '49 will meet at the Northern Chalet in Libertyville that evening and the Class of '55 will hold its get-together at Paty's Lounge.

Kim Bye was the guest of honor at a surprise bridal shower last Sunday. She and Mike Horton will tie the knot on June 14.

Donna Kessler returned home after a year of studies in Barcelona, Spain. Seems Dick and Ellen decided to spend the night in quieter places when all of her friends from MacMurray College dropped in to spend the night and hear all about her travels and adventures.

GET WELLS to Pete Weber who is recovering from surgery at home, to Dora Beattie and John Uedell who are in Victory Memorial Hospital recovering from surgery, and to Mrs. Lorenz of Lorenz's Smart Country House who is in Resurrection Hospital in Chicago, also just getting over surgery. Hurry up and get well you guys - it's too nice outside to be in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Justice of Lake Villa are happy to announce the birth of their third child, Joseph Allen, on May 22. Little Joe has a brother John, 10 and a sister Susan, who is 8.

Maternal grandparents are the John Scharrers of Lake Villa and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. Millican of Zion.

Several classmates helped Liz Benes celebrate "Sweet 16" at a surprise birthday party given by her mom last weekend.

Belated greetings to Tony Torchia who celebrated his natal day last Saturday.

Many happys to Phyllis Bucar on the 6th and to Louise Johnson and Tom Benwart on the 10th.

Anniversary congrats to Warren and Ramona Sheehan who celebrate on the 8th and to Karen and Jerry Powers who celebrate on the 9th. (Hope you have a happy day "Little Bit.")

GOOD LUCK to all of our graduates - The Antioch News wishes you much success and happiness in the future.

The Bicentennial stickers are on sale now at the Village Hall for $1.

Remember - June 8 is "Children's Day," and don't forget Pop - his day is the following Sunday.

See ya,
Annie Mae

Are you a good judge of bargains? Can you tell which is the better buy?

1. (a) a cut of meat labeled 4.5 pounds or (b) one labeled 4 pounds 5 ounces?

2. (a) a 16-ounce can of frozen orange juice for 63 cents; (b) an 8-ounce can at four for a dollar or (c) a quart container for $1.19?

3. (a) two 26 ounce boxes of Snowy bleach for $1.83 or (b) two 40 ounce packages of Clorox 2 for $1.78.

4. (a) a ground beef chuck at 89 cents a pound or (b) pork spareribs at 89 cents a pound?

ANSWERS:

1. (a) 4.5 pounds is 4.5 x 16 = 72 ounces. (b) 4 pounds is 4 x 16 = 64 ounces. (a) is 8 ounces more than (b).
2. (a) 16-ounce can for 63 cents is 63/16 = 3.9375 cents per ounce. (b) 8-ounce can at four for a dollar is 100/8 = 12.5 cents per ounce. (c) quart container for $1.19 is 119/32 = 3.71875 cents per ounce. (a) is the best buy.
3. (a) two 26 ounce boxes of Snowy bleach for $1.83 is 1.83/52 = 0.03519 cents per ounce. (b) two 40 ounce packages of Clorox 2 for $1.78 is 1.78/80 = 0.02225 cents per ounce. (b) is the best buy.
4. (a) ground beef chuck at 89 cents a pound is 89 cents per pound. (b) pork spareribs at 89 cents a pound is 89 cents per pound. Both are the same.

FNB Introduces Photo I.D. Card

The First National Bank of Antioch Tuesday morning introduced a new service program to its customers.

The program gives businessmen and other customers "much greater flexibility in accepting checks from First National Bank customers," said the bank's president, LaVerne M. Woods.

Mr. Woods and Peter J. Clevon, vice-president of the bank, explained the program to a large group attending a continental breakfast at the bank.

"We are going to offer, to our checking account customers, photo identification cards," Mr. Woods said. "These cards will be issued in two different series identified by color, either red or brown. The brown cards are for positive identification only. The red cards will be Check Guarantee cards.

"The card will utilize a polaroid color portrait of the bearer, his signature, and checking account number laminated in virtually tamper-proof plastic. You can't forge a face, and we're convinced that this card will not only help to eliminate fraud but will also foster greater use of our checking services.

"Checks which are made out for amounts of $100 or less will be guaranteed by the bank when the merchant fills in the expiration date and the account number noted on the red card, on the back of the check."

"The good will and traffic-building potential of your participation in the program are obvious. We hope you'll join many other stores, restaurants and service organizations in Antioch who will honor the First National Bank Guarantee card," Mr. Woods said.

The Antioch Girls Softball league began its season Sunday despite a downpour that briefly interrupted the opening day schedule.

League officers said a large group of fans turned out. Mayor Robert C. Wilton threw the first pitch.

Games will be played on Sundays and Thursdays until the middle of July, except that next Sunday (June 8) will be a day off because of the high school graduation.

Teams presently are playing under the names of their managers. Scores of opening games were:

Gossman 12, Lipske 8
Matthews 15, Byrne 7

ACHS Wrestler Picks College

MACOMB - Western Illinois head wrestling coach Mitsuo Nakai has added two more wrestlers to his recruiting fold.

Scott Shaffer, a standout at Antioch High School, and Reno Mueller, Joliet Junior College, have returned signed letters of intent, Nakai said.

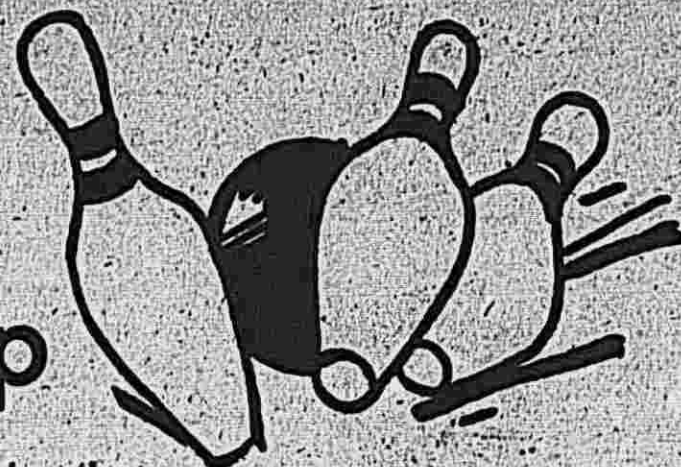

Shaffer finished sixth in the Illinois state high school championships in 1974, while recording a 32-6-0 record, and his past season record was 29-1-1. He wrestled at 112 pounds but will be used as a 118 pounder in college.

Mueller was 30-2-0 two years ago at Romeoville High School, but injuries limited his participation at Joliet. Although he wrestled at 152 pounds in high school, Nakai says he will be used at 134 or 142 pounds at Western.

Tennessee entered the Union as the 16th state on June 1, 1796.

Antioch Drugs Bowlers Win Championship

Antioch Drugs had the championship team this year in the Alley Kats league on Tuesday night at Antioch Bowl.

The winning lineup, composed of Sally Schlarbaum, Ethel Jones, Joyce Slatner, Marge Vos and Dee Taylor, finished three games ahead of their nearest rivals in the eight-team league.

Sally held a 158 average for the season and Marge averaged 150. They are sisters-in-law.

The team's best performance came when they rolled a 950 game with handicap, an average of 190 per bowler.

They received their trophies at the league's banquet at Renwood Country Club in Round Lake.

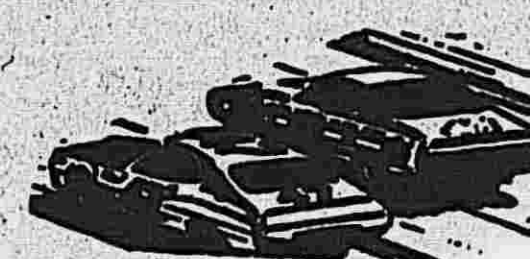

The five gals plan to bowl as a team again next year and hope to make it two championships in a row.

50-Lap Race At Waukegan

A stellar field is entered in Saturday night's "Dodge City" 50-lap championship late model stock car race at Waukegan Speedway.

G.L. Miller Dodge is sponsoring the special race and will present plastic crash helmets to the first 250 youngsters at the track. Gates will open at 6 p.m. with the first race at 8 o'clock.

Leading the entry list will be Tom Jones, Ray Young, George Dukas, Lee and Larry Schuler, Ted Richter, Bob Dotter and defending Waukegan and Chicagoland champion Bob Roper.

TOM JONES continued his winning ways last Saturday night at Waukegan Speedway, winning the 30-lap late model feature.

Jones hopes to have his new Camaro ready for this Saturday's 50-lap championship race.

Jones also romped to his 78th career feature win and fourth Chicagoland win in a row, Sunday night.

Jones took the lead in the 16th lap from Bob Dotter and raced to his third straight win in a week at the Waukegan oval. Jones' string started last Monday night when he won the Carling 50-lap race at Waukegan.

Carter Stars At Raceway

Dana Carter of Brownsburg, Ind., had better luck at the Lake Geneva Raceway Sunday night than he encountered at USAC Sprints in Terre Haute, Ind., earlier in the afternoon.

Carter, who had a sprint car fail him at the Indiana Fairgrounds, chartered a plane and flew into Lake Geneva to race in the USAC midgets. He set a new qualifying record in time trials and came back to win the 30 lap feature, leading every lap.

Ken Nichols, California, won the Trophy Dash and heats were won by Champion Mel Kenyon, Indiana, and Larry Patton, California.

The only accident occurred when Jerry Dunlap, in an Offenhauser powered racer, lost control and crashed into the wall in time trials. He was not injured but the car was out for the night.

This Sunday night the All-American Late Model Sportsman stock cars race again.

CONRAD MORGAN became the first driver to win a second late model stock car feature this year, as he took the checkered flag Saturday night at Lake Geneva in his 1968 Mustang.

Joe Torrie, Lake Villa, had a comfortable lead before being passed by Morgan on the 25th lap. Fast time qualifier Jack Ester, Antioch, was not as fortunate at getting through from the back and finished 10th.

Pope John XXIII died June 3, 1963.

LAKE VILLA'S FIRST FIRE TRUCK, this 1932 Peter Pirsch model built in Kenosha, Wis., was used Saturday when the Lake Villa department won the fire-man hookup competition in the county fire-fighters convention here. Chief Elmer Sheehan and assistant chief Winsor Dalgaard credited Captain Frank Slazes and his crew with a remarkable performance as they set a county record of 14.4 seconds in hooking onto a hydrant and spraying accurately at their target. Posing in the truck were (from left) Wayne Slazes, Kirk Slazes and Paul Wagner. Lake Villa hosts the county convention next May.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By ED COLLINS

The racquet is not a club — don't hold it like one!

If you're among the thousands of Sunday afternoon "hit and giggle" players who periodically take their levis and dime-store tennis racquets out for a bit of fun in the sun, let's get at least one thing straight — the grip!

You might as well learn to hold the silly thing right.

Change to the backhand grip. Unless you are a super star, don't use a universal grip. Change. This is the single most important reason why so many players can't hit a backhand. They don't change their grip. It is physically impossible to succeed without the correct grip.

Packers paid 'too much,' says candid John Hadl

By BOB ORTMAN

As a businessman (land investments), quarterback John Hadl offers an evaluation of the midseason deal the Green Bay Packers made to bring him from the Los Angeles Rams.

"They gave up too much," he judged.

Still, the pressure will be on him next season to convince Green Bay fans that he is worth all the draft choices he cost the Pack — two firsts, two seconds and a third.

"It won't be the first time," said John, who frequently was forced to prove himself during the 10 years he spent with the San Diego Chargers before going to the Rams in 1973 and being acclaimed National Football Conference player of the year. "It's happened everywhere else. If you win, it's great. If you lose, there's pressure."

"They'll forget about it. I haven't given it any thought. I didn't make the trade," he concluded with a wry grin.

Hadl is looking forward eagerly to working with Bart Starr, who replaced Dan Devine as coach at season's end when Devine, under pressure, quit to take the Notre Dame helm.

"I'm really getting pumped up," said John. "I've always had a lot of respect for Bart Starr, as a player and person. We've talked on the phone four or five times about different things. I know it'll be a good relationship."

"We need a couple outside receivers and a couple offensive linemen. If we get them, we'll be right in the race. We already have a great defense."

Unfortunately, of course, they couldn't "get them" in the draft. Remember? No draft choices.

Incidentally, Hadl insists he had "no problem" with Los Angeles. Green Bay simply made the Rams an offer they couldn't refuse.

"They made a fine business deal," said John admiringly. "They got two No. 1s, two No. 2s and a three, and James Harris (Hadl's backup at the time) is a fine quarterback."

"It upset me at the time," he admitted. "It was the middle of the season. And it knocked me out of the playoffs. But I got a fine deal with Green Bay (reportedly $200,000 a year on a three-year, no-trade, no-cut contract)."

"I'm steadily getting better," said John. He laughed. But he obviously meant it. "Physically, I'm as good as I've ever been, contrary to what was coming out of L.A. for a few weeks. There's nothing wrong with my arm. Absolutely nothing."

"Gosh, Ed, we forgot the maraschino cherries."

The story is told of Bing Crosby's efforts to combat the blustery weather threatening the recent Bing Crosby Open Golf Tournament.

Bing went to Catholic Father Leonard Scannell, himself an avid golfer from San Francisco, and said: "Maybe you can intervene for us, Father. We're not having much luck with the weather. Rattle the beads, or do something to help. Anything."

"Sorry, Bing," said the priest. "That's not my department. That's management. I'm in sales."

WHAT ABOUT RETIREMENT?

By FRANK CORRICK

Q. Can a woman get the tops in Social Security if she made the same amount as a man? — G.L.

A. Actually, up until now, she would have gotten more. Until the law was changed recently, a woman's benefit rate was computed based on average earnings up to the year she attained age 62, while a man's benefit was based on average earnings up to age 65. This gave a woman more money than a man of the same age who had earned the same amount of money. Now the law has been changed and henceforth the computation of monthly Social Security benefits for men and women is the same.

HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE

By NANCY ANDERSON

Golf, which has possibly ruined more marriages than infidelity, brought Sean Connery and his bride, Micheline Roquebrune, together. They met three years ago on a golf course and were wed in December in Casablanca. They are hand-holding on the Morocco set of "The Man Who Would Be King," a movie in which Connery marries Shakira, the real-life wife of Michael Caine, who, incidentally, plays Connery's best man in the movie.

Shakira, a Guyana beauty queen, says her role in the picture is her first and will be her last — not that she has anything against working with Sean.

"Michael encouraged me to do this," says the neophyte actress, "but I'm not ambitious to be a star."

"One reason Michael wanted me to be in the film with him was because it's in his contract that he'll get a finished print of the picture. And perhaps in 25 years, we can show it to our grandchildren."

Lee Marvin's 19-year-old stepdaughter, Maury, has taken a job with the caterers feeding 100 British crewmen and 200 African extras in Peter Hunt's "Shout At the Devil," locationing in South Africa. Maury could use the training she's getting when mealtime rolls around at the Marvins, since Lee and his wife, Pamela, have eight children between them.

Mr. Bright Dies In Florida

Word was received here last week of the death of L. O. Bright, 85, on May 22 at his home in Babson Park, Florida. Mr. Bright was superintendent of Antioch Community High School for approximately 20 years, leaving in 1941.

He is survived by one son, George, and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Bright and a daughter, Marjorie, preceded him in death. Funeral services and burial were in Florida.

"What's more important? Splashing around in water or knowing how to blast out of a sand trap?"
